EXTRA VERSES (Whether Or Not) EXTRA VERSES

Wendell Hall's Own Fifty Famous Verses. Repeat Chorus After Each Verse.
Accent the underlined syllables. They are the first beat in each measure.

3. How to tune a Uke I never knew,
The strings are B and K and Q;
But one string I can never tell,
I think it's M but it sounds like L.

4. My gal's bright as silverware,
Got 'lectric'ty in her hair,
Fire in her eyes from drinkin' rum,
Gas on her tum-tum-tummy-tum-tum.

5. A cullud boy named Deacon Jones,
Heard they found Napoleon's Bones;
Another boy called Dumbell Dan
Sez I never knew Nap was a gamblin' man.

6. A little old lake full of fish and frogs,
Rain was rainin' cats and dogs,
The fish went wild and killed the cats,
A frog kicked a bulldog in the slats.

7. Got a one-lung Ford that's built for speed,
There ain't nothin' it don't need,
Ain't nothin' left but a pile of tin,
It s a darn good can for the shape it's in.

8. One winter night I thought I'd freeze,
Old gray mare she froze her knees,
She sneezed so hard she caught the croup,
Her tail got stiff and she couldn't stoop.

9. We all make mistakes, seems we can't stop,
That's why a rubber's on a pencil top,
That's why sand bags are on balloons,
Why they put rubber mats around spittoons.

10. Magnificent gal is Mag McGee,
Full of magnamosity,
Oh, she's magnetic as can be,
But all she's got is charged to me.

11. Old Dapper Dan, the ladies man,
Strolled in town all spick and span,
A sprinklin' cart began to squirt,
Dampened Dapper Danny's shirt.

12. A man was strollin' down the street,
Drizzly rain turned into sleet,
His left ear froze to his derby hat,
Now he don t know where his ear is at.

13. Here's a story 'bout a sad jay-bird,
Saddest tail I ever heard,
Said Jay-bird might be whistlin' yet,
But in the rain one night he got his whistle wet.

14. Now here's a verse 'bout a jewish man,
A moonshiner from Georgia lan',
The shortest verse I ever knew,
Hebrew, he-brew, he-brew, he-brew.

15. On a seasick ride with Captain Gray,
He charged me for six meals a day;
I had to pay that pirate pup,
For three going down and three comin' up.

16. The folks in Ban Yan build grass huts,
Live on laffs and cocoanuts,
There ain't no poor and there ain't no sick,
The fat get fatter and the thin get thick.

17. Said Mister Spider, look at me,
Watch me make the little flies flee,
A sneering pup said with a sigh,
That's nuthin' I make little fleas fly.

18. I laughed so hard I thought I'd bust,
Fed a hen some dry sawdust,
When Sister Hen she hatched her eggs,
All the little chicks had wooden legs.

19. The dog stood on the burnin' deck,
Flames were flyin' 'round his neck,
He was tied to a fiery log,
The heat done ruined him — Hot Dawg!

20. A bottle broke in a bootlegger's house,
Mouse and a kitty went on a souse,
The mouse got mushy and the cat got tight,
'Twas a very large evening, and a great big night.

21. One long hard winter a big baboon,
Took a daily swim in a cold lagoon,
He swam for a mile, he swam with a vim,
His mother says that made a man of him.

22. A bowlegged gal from Tennessee,
Comes from a healthy family,
No matter how well this gal may be,
She never looks in very good shape to me.

23. A fig is a very funny guy,
He thinks dates are rather dry,
He says a grape's a raisin soon,
An apricot is a red-head prune.

24. A berry in the hand's worth two on the bush,
A rollin' stone first needs a push,
The proverb that is most absurd,
Says a man killed two stones with one bird.

25. Two great lessons as of old,
Listen while I get you told,
A Ukulele never frets,
A fish swims hard but never sweats.

26. A man says to me with a great big smile,
Run around the block with me awhile,
Says he that's what my doctors say,
Exercise with dumbells ev'ry day.

(Whether Or Not)

EXTRA VERSES

27. When I was sick Doc said to me,
Walk on an empty stomach constantly,
Says I, "I'll tread the tummy you choose,
But please, sir, kindly designate whose."

28. Took a seasick ride on a submarine,
Doctor says, "You're turnin' green,
Just hold something on your stomach, my good man,"
But I couldn't hold a darn thing but my hand.

29. I'll bust into song, my pal exclaimed,
Sing in any flat you want to name,
I break into flats very easily,
Providing that I get the key.

30. A little black boy all dressed in white,
Went to heaven on a tail of a kite;
He went so high, and he went so far,
They had to send him back on a shootin' star.

31. The June bugs had a holiday,
Beetle and the Horse-fly both got gay,
The Boll-Weevil started in to cuttin' up,
The Doodle bug hit him with a buttercup.

32. A big baboon he combed his hair,
With the leg of a rockin' chair,
He washed his face in a fryin' pan,
Made a looking glass from a sardine can.

33. A bean from Ohio went out to play,
Didn't turn up till close of day,
He came back a little reddish long and lean,
Where, Oh where, had Lima Bean!

34. Anemic man named Dan McGrew,
Poor little fellow, he was a Jew,
I asked how his name he'd come to take,
Said he used the Irish for protection's sake.

35. I went to Honolulu town,
Saw those dark skinned gals so brown,
Saw one rush into the reeds,
And shake a hula-hula in her sea-weed beads.

36. A monkey hangin' from a limb,
Watching minnows learn to swim,
A crocodile came up for air,
Now there ain't no monkey there.

37. Dad licked me cause I did wrong,
So I sat on an ice cake all day long;
I'm a boy just eight years old,
Now my little tale is told.

38. A Kangaroo's tail is long and thick,
Beaver's tail is flat and slick,
A Piggie's tail is full of bends,
Elephant's tail is at both ends.

EXTRA VERSES

39. A big horse fly, I thought I'd die,
Lights on a mule and tries to sigh,
The mule decide to shimmy his hide,
So the fool fly flew to the other side.

40. A farmer wrote to a factory,
"I've used your corn syrup carefully,
I bathe my feet in it every day,
But my ten corns ain't gone away."

41. A bumble bee was buzzin' round,
Cracked my whip and knocked him down,
But he was such a chummy bee,
Came back and sat down on my knee.

42. A man was charged with vagrancy,
"Down and out, I am," says he,
"You're down, says the judge, in many ways,
But you ain't out for thirty days."

43. I went to a raffle yesterday,
Rafflin' real estate away,
I put three dollars in the pot,
Spent a little and got a lot.

44. The things that I do right are wrong,
Do things wrong, right all day long,
I've got a short face but it's long and sad,
Got a lot of luck but it's all bad.

45. I drank some pop with a gal one day,
I was short asked her to pay,
Her straw was bent, so when she spoke,
She said, "Daw-Gone, my sucker's broke."

46. Oh, there's a man in Delaware,
He don't wear no underwear,
He has got a gal named Sue,
It's funny 'cause she don't wear none too.

47. Went out one day to milk a cow,
Didn't have no luck no-how,
Milked with a vim, and milked with a will,
Found out later his name was Bill.

48. On a railroad bridge a man sat down,
One thousand ten feet from the ground,
Someone took the bridge elsewhere,
Left the man a sittin' there.

49. Now please don't blame the weather man,
Weather's hard to understand,
For really folks he never knows,
Whither weather comes or whither it goes.

50. I hope I've kind of made it plain,
Sunshine drives away the rain,
Your darkest clouds will soon be bright,
To-morrow comes after to-night.
